GEORGES STRIKES!

The problem with Georges was that it just wouldn't go away. We got two and a half days of gusty winds and heavy rain squalls. Indeed the worst came after Georges left the area as the northern half of the county was cut off from the southern half for about 50 hrs by flooding rivers.

The games are trudging along fine with the exception of "Agamemnon" which seems to have a problem with the Orange faction. "Boris XI" could end next time and CIRCUS MAXIMUS should end in December. We'll have to cram "Boris XIII" in starting next issue, along with the expected long reports from ADVANCED CIVILIZATION, the 18xxs, and the AORs.

STANDBY ALERT: Ms Osborne is NMR again and her subscription has lapsed, so...

ADVANCED CIV: Assyria. (Mike Scott has first dibs)

HISTORY OF THE WORLD: Up to three positions available, contact the GM, Kevin Wilson

MAGIC REALM: Fern & Xyla

Interested parties should send in orders for each position they are interested in. If the present player again fails to submit orders on time, a random drawing will be held.

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: "Windows NT's myriad failures were highlighted yet again, this time by a near-catastrophic incident uncovered by Government Computer News. GCN reported that last fall NT systems running the Navy warship U.S.S. Yorktown brought the vessel to its knees when someone typed a zero into a data field. Unable to divide by zero, the ship came to a dead stop and had to be towed to port. The incident was just the most recent of many troubles plaguing Windows NT, which many in the industry now feel is dead in the water." --Robert Capps

Looks like there will be the near-equivalent of AvalonCon next summer at the Hunt Valley Inn a week earlier than usual. Probably to be called "PlayersCon", they plan to run 100 events, 80-some of which will be legacy from ACon, the rest to be decided by player interest and GM availability. The Con would mainly feature boardgames and non-collectable card games (so NAVAL WAR, GUERRILLA, and UP FRONT would qualify, but MAGIC would not). RISK, AXIS & ALLIES, and SETTLERS OF CATAAN are good bets to make it.

BOOS & KUDOS

This month's Madame Bolduc Press Excellence Award (and free issue) goes to John Ringhoffer for his press in "Wine Is Fine".

This month's Ms Nar Super-Sudsy Bomb is lobbed at Debbie Osborne for NMRing out of three games.

PARIS, MOSCOW FALL! MARSIELLES LIBERATED!

Spring 1911

1997D

ERRATA: F BER's order last time should've been "S anybody but Engler".

VOTE: Concession to England fails 3-2; the concession to E/I fails 3-2.

MIRKWOOD: The Brits have occupied MOS & PAR and cannot be forcibly dislodged from either, but MAR has been taken by the Italians and it too is defensible. WAR is a ripe for British plundering, but so too is SPA to a Franco-Italian effort. The three retreats are the key to thwarting a British victory this year -- along with close Franco-Italian and Russo-Turkish cooperation. Can the Small Four bury their differences long enough to halt the British juggernaut?

MINAS MORGUL: It appears to be the beginning of the end for both Turkey and Italy. Only a modicum of Austro-Russian cooperation will assure that Islam is no longer a threat to Christian Europe. Italy's choice of dishandment will tell volumes for his options for resistance. Meanwhile England hunkers down and awaits, what? A French invasion of WAL employing a German fleet?
